We, the students and faculty of G.U.A., thank you sincerely and we join in wishing your organization God's blessing in the future.

Our Administrator's Message

Probing one's mind on the concept of time and its relationship to life can be as a star is to a ship adrift on the far-flung sea. For the abstract quality of time is like the endless sea. Always the future horizon looms ahead. Uncharted reefs, oppressive storms, and pleasurable ectasties of life are all hidden by the veil of time.

Richter said, "Time is the chrysalis of eternity." How true this is for us as Christian youth. Each day is a new paragraph, each week is a new page, each month is a new chapter and each year is a new book flinging wide its heart for eternity to see. What is written in this book will determine the set of our sail and destination of our life in the future.

Time can be the master of a man or man can make time his servant. Not one of us in our right mind would consider throwing away our life at a sudden thrust; yet, it is not the concept of the age to manifest no concern in throwing it away by parcels and piecemeal.

A sober realization of this thought read occasionally through the years may stimulate the set of your sail. The set of the sail can be varied. It will depend on the influence and purposes of your life.

Has the eternal goal set in your youth been altered by the tides and the wind of your adult life? There is a port in the distance, but a pilot must be at the helm. Whenever you read this, it is time for retrospection upon your life for "time waits for no man."

It is said that it is well to leave our footprints on the sands of time, but it is wise to be more cautious of our fingerprints.

Principal's Thought

Dear Junior High Youth,

The years that we have spent together have made you increasingly important and dear to us. This year has been one of the very best, with achievements and memories that will last forever. Our daily prayer bands, our weeks of prayer, our class associations, our recreational and social activities, our camping trips, our spiritual victories — the memory of each brings a warm glow to the heart.

The future is yours. It will be glorious indeed if you will only remember that "the true object of education is to restore the image of God in the soul," and that "eternity alone can reveal the glorious destiny to which man, restored to God's image, may attain."

Sincerely your friend,
Joe Engelkemier

NEW INDUSTRY

At last we have been able to establish a printing press here at G. U. A. We find in the study of the history of the Advent message that the printing press was one of the main mediums through which the world was warned of the second Advent of Christ. This dates back as far as 1840 and we find that the press is still doing its part in carrying the message to the world. The Seventh Day Adventists today have printing presses in every part of the world. The need is therefore very great for young men and young women who are efficient along the line of printing.

HURRAH FOR THE H. AND S.

The Home and School department is working hard to fit up an out-door gym for the Academy.

Already several hundred dollars has been spent on equipment suitable for all the grades from one to twelve.

All equipment will be factory-made after the style and variety approved by the State Board of Education, and we are assured by those who know that every article will be strong, safe and substantial, and with the proper care will last for years.

M. V. S.

The Missionary Volunteer Society was organized recently, with the duties of another year looming before us.

We surely must, as students, all take part in rowing the boat of our race into the harbor, for it has been

LAST MINUTE NEWS

College Key Campaign rousing success! Peaches win by a margin of six. 103 subscriptions over the goal! Largest circulation the paper has ever known.

Peaches! Cherries!

The College Key Campaign started off with a rush of enthusiasm that insured our reaching the goal of subscriptions from the very first.

At this writing we are past the first lap of the race but still going strong.

The red flag of the "cherries," still flutters above the pale one of "peaches" but none can say how many subs those Peaches may be hiding up their sleeves to spring as a surprise some fine morning.

Both divisions are determined to win but as this cannot be it might be wise for the leaders to plan a little for that program that is to be given by the losers.

Mr. Dart's clever device of the movable flags is a never failing source of interest to the whole as, it keeps us informed as to the progress of the race as far as it is known.

Activity Improvements

Have you been to the Activity Office this year? If not, you'd better visit it at once.

SAILS FOR CHINA

The Glendale Union Academy is beginning to realize the purpose for its existence, that is,to train workers for the needy fields beyond.

September 17, 1926, William Eberhardt, a former student of the Academy and his bride, Estella Wahlen Eberhardt, sailed for the Far East where they will be engaged in sanitarium work.

Mr. Eberhardt came to the Academy in his Senior year, and graduated at the close of the term, May 14, 1926.

Those who attended school last year will remember how clean and tidy our buildings and premises were kept. Mr. Eberhardt had charge of the janitor work. In this capacity he not only was of service to the school, but earned all his expenses.

The student who is dependable in his relation to the various duties of school life, will make good wherever the call comes to go to a mission field. Mr. Eberhardt, we know, will be a blessing in the field he has chosen.

We hope and pray that the example set by William will impress many of our students to devote their lives to the mission fields abroad; and that in the near future the Glendale Union Academy will be represented in many places of the world.

Let us hear from you, William.

D. A. Ochs.

HIGH MAN ON ANY TOTEM POLE!

There is always room at the top — for young men and women who are prepared. Basic education that fits a person not only to do a job but to do it better — is fundamental to success.

We urge all who are graduating from High School or Academy to choose a Christian college in which to continue their education. When you are ready for it, there may be a place waiting for you with ACE — a rapidly expanding international manufacturer of precision tools for industry, with openings for college graduates in many parts of the U. S. or abroad.

Prepare today for tomorrow. You, too, may become "High Man on the Totem Pole".

If you are facing financial difficulties in obtaining a college education, we suggest you write to George C. Beck, Vice-President, for information regarding the A-C-E (A Christian Education) student employment plan. It has helped hundreds of young people to realize their life's ambition.

SUPPORTERS, FRIENDS, AND TEACHERS

I would like to thank you, "all of you," for your fine support and cooperation in making the 1960 G.U.A. yearbook a success. I would also like to thank the staff. Thank you, Elder Jeffreys, for your excellent assistance. Cindy-Lynn, the staff appreciates your fine photography. For your excellent division pages, Mr. Bacon, accept our appreciation. Donna Stebner, Associate Editor, without your fine help, it would have been impossible to make this book what it is. Paul Aragon, Business Manager, thanks to you for keeping the budget in line; to Carol Barton, Circulation Manager, for seeing that the people who wanted yearbooks received them; Advertising Manager, Brenda Hoatson, for trotting around the city getting ads; Gordon Reid, Photographer, for your excellent work in getting pictures when the staff needed them, and our applause goes to Mr. Jenkins for his wonderful help with the photography. Without the Coach's help we wouldn't have this book. Belinda Larsen for your outstanding work on the cartoons and striking cover, goes our gratitude. Mr. Watkins and faculty, we want to thank you for your patience and encouragement.

Thank you one and all. You have successfully completed a task of which you may well be proud. As editor, I wish you continued success.

Dee Ann

Dear John,

I must say there's never been a dull moment since I've been sitting behind you. I hope you didn't mind your little essays on chalk! But it sure was funny! I hope you enjoyed that awful pink thing in your mouth but please keep it there!

Have a blast this summer and keep out of trouble.

Love,
Cheryl

ג'ון יקר,

אני חושבת שלא היה רגע משעמם מאז שאני יושבת מאחוריך. אני מקווה שלא היה לך אכפת מהחיבורים שלך על הגיר! אבל זה היה ממש מצחיק! אני מקווה שתהנה מהדבר הוורוד המגעיל הזה בפה שלך אבל בבקשה תשאיר אותו שם!

תהנה מהקיץ ותשמור על עצמך.

אהבה,
שרי
